HOAGLAND'S
NEW PATENT SHAFT COUPLING!
W. E. COOPER
HAS PURCHASED THE RIGHT FOR THIS County of the above Patent, and will hereafter use it in the construction of all the Vehicles manufactured at his extensive
Carriage Factory,
Corner of Second and Morrison Streets.
He respectfully refers to the following
CARD.
Having examined the New Patent Shaft Coupling invented by H. R. Hoagland, we feel pleasure in informing the public that in our opinion it is the safest and best method of connecting shafts or tongues to all vehicles that has ever been used.
It fastens without bolt or screw, and is therefore easily and speedily separated. It rests on Gutta Percha so as to be entirely free from the rattling sound which so often disturbs a restless horse. It is easily changed so that the shafts or tongue may be detached in an instant, and is convenient, safe and secure.
It is easy to change to this style of coupling any buggy or other vehicle now in use, and with small expense. We have come to the conclusion to use this new Invention ourselves and recommend its use in all cases. We consider it far superior to the Brewster Patent heretofore considered the best in use.

INDIANS ON THE WAR PATH.
... Battle ...

WASHINGTON, Dec. 21.—The Superintendent of Indian Affairs for New Mexico forwards to the Indian Office a report of the condition of the Mescalero Apache Indians, in which it is stated that they are still on the war path. On the night of November 17th a party of twenty of them took about a hundred head of cattle from a man living twenty miles east of Fort Stanton, on the Rio Hondo. The ... morning Sergeant ... Fort Stanton sent out Cushing and a detachment of twenty-two men of Company F, Third Cavalry, in pursuit of them. The cavalry followed their trail over a very rough and broken country, and overtook the Indians in a ... on the ... of the Guadalupe mountains, about 100 miles south of Fort Stanton, and at ... of the 8th attacked them. After fighting three hours Lieut. Cushing completely routed the Indians, captured about forty head of the stolen stock and twenty-six horses and mules belonging to the savages. The number of Indians engaged in the fight is estimated at about 100, and the number killed and wounded fifteen. They abandoned their property during the fight and took to the rocks on the sides of the canyon. The rocks were upward of a thousand feet high, and the trail was very difficult to follow, the Indians frequently dividing into small parties and scattering over the country to conceal the trail. Lieut. Cushing traveled the last 120 miles in pursuit without water for his men and animals.

CONSTITUTIONAL CONVENTION COMMITTEES—ILLINOIS CENTRAL LAND SALES.
[From the Chicago Tribune, Dec. 21.]

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., Dec. 19.—Everything has been quiet during the adjournment. A large number of members went home, and it is possible may not get back in time to make a quorum for the session to-morrow. The arrangement of committees will be completed to-night, and will be ready to announce to the convention to-morrow. In making up the committees no regard whatever has been paid to party, and men have been selected because of their peculiar personal fitness or by reason of locality. The Chairman of the Judiciary Committee will be a Democrat. The whole committee will be made up from the best legal talent in the convention. When the convention does reassemble it will only be to adjourn over the holidays.

Judge Samuel E. Flanigan, one of the Trustees of the Southern Illinois Normal University, has just been acquitted of the many scandalous charges made against him and for which a grand jury found a bill of indictment against him. The charges, after strict examination, have been proved to be without foundation, and the courts have fully acquitted the Judge.

The amount of land sold by the Illinois Central Railroad Company for the six months ending October 31, 1869, is 96,426 acres, the purchase money amounting to $1,192,483 64. Lawrence county has at last made her returns of the assessed value of property for 1869, $1,758,649, it being $512,749 less than the assessed value of 1868, and $172,041 less than the equalized value of 1867.

SPRINGFIELD, Dec. 20.—In the convention the President announced the standing committees. Several resolutions were offered, among which are one in relation to the removal of the National Capital to Nauvoo, and seeking the district to Congress; to require the Governor to certify to the Legislature a statement of all moneys received and paid by him; to prohibit the General Assembly from granting divorces and engaging in other special legislation, establishing local courts in cities of 10,000 and over; against re-leasing the Illinois Central Railroad; for an annual session of the General Assembly, and a fixed salary for the members instead of a per diem; providing that the Senate shall consist of forty-five members and the House 145; that Boards of Education shall plant forest trees along the highways and preserve them; providing that no decree of divorce shall be entered except for adultery proved in open court. Adjourned to January 5, 1870.

A MAN CAPTURES A METEOR—IT IS ... BY A CONNECTICUT PROFESSOR.

MILWAUKEE, Wis., Dec. 19.—Mr. Carl Kremis, a resident of Oak Creek, while returning home on Friday night from this city was startled by the appearance of a meteoric substance descending with great rapidity, emitting a bluish flame. It struck a marshy spot on the side of the road near Mr. Kremis, scattering the mud in all directions. Mr. Kremis stopped his team and went to the spot, where he found an opening the size of a barrel. After great difficulty he succeeded in getting hold of the singular visitor, which was still hot and emitted a sulphurous smell, and was similar to a large cinder or piece of lava. It was brought to this city yesterday and taken possession of by Professor Stancliffe, of Middletown, Conn., who happened to be in the city, who pronounces it a meteoric stone.

THE NEW KENTUCKY U. S. SENATOR.
[From the Cincinnati Gazette.]

Governor Stevenson was born in Richmond, Va., and was educated at the University of that State. He was the son of Andrew Stevenson, who was a member of Congress from 1821 to 1834, and Speaker of that body for six years, and who was also Minister to England from 1836 to 1841. The son therefore comes of a political family. He settled in Covington in 1841, and commenced the practice of the law. He was elected to the State Legislature for three successive years, was a member of the State Constitutional Convention, and a delegate to the National Democratic Conventions of 1848, 1852 and 1856. He was twice a Presidential Elector, and was one of the Commissioners to revise the civil and criminal code of Kentucky. He was a member of the Thirty-fifth and Thirty-sixth Congresses, and was a delegate to the Philadelphia Convention of 1866. In 1867 he was elected Lieutenant Governor of his State, and the year following, a vacancy having occurred in the office of Governor by the death of Governor Helm, he was elected to that position. The new Senator therefore has had considerable experience in public life, and is ... every way ... improvement upon the gentleman he succeeds. In politics he is a Democrat, but of ... more moderate type than are those who usually hail from that State.

THE RED RIVER REBELLION—THE REBELS HAVE FULL CONTROL OF THE COUNTRY.
[From the Chicago Tribune, Dec. 22.]

ST. PAUL, Minn., Dec. 21.—Letters from Pembina dated the 9th say the revolutionary Council held at Fort Garry had resolved to resist by force all efforts that the Government of Canada may make towards assuming Executive control of the Red River country. On arriving at this conclusion they immediately arrested about forty of the prominent men in the settlement who favored a counter revolution in favor of Canada, including Dr. B..., editor of the Nor' Wester, Dr. Schultz, Maj. Wallace, Mr. Hallet, and Maj. R..., and placed them in confinement. No blood was shed, as the use of force was found unnecessary to carry this out. Col. Dennis, who had gathered a force of Indians and half breeds to assist him in entering the country and making his surveys, has been obliged to retreat. The Government forces still occupy the lower fort, and the rebels to the number of 600 occupy Fort Garry and vicinity. There seems to be but a small element in the country in favor of annexation to the Dominion of Canada. The prominent citizens would prefer ... the ... Hudson Bay regime. These letters indicate that the insurgents have full control of the country, and the Government forces in and near ... Fort ... are ... deserting ... Gov. McDougall remains at Pembina. This news is from rebel sympathizers wholly, and must be taken as such. Private letters from the other side ... altogether opposite opinions. The Hudson Bay people here put but little ... the truth of the news and ... Indian war.

REVISION OF THE TARIFF.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Dec. 21.—The Ways and Means Committee ... will ... through ... with the Tariff Bill ... New Years. What they have accomplished ... the ... can be told in a short paragraph. ... at $ ... of $2 per ton ... at $6 ... of $8, and the number of articles upon the free list is considerably reduced. The classification of manufactured iron have been materially changed, but whether the rates are on the whole higher or lower ... it seems impossible to determine, some members of the committee saying that they are increased and others holding that they are not. Steel is fixed at 3 cents per pound specific instead of mixed specific and ... ad valorem. ... will probably be ... ... alone ... the ... remain at 15 and 24 cents per pound. Nickel has been largely increased. As telegraphed, sugars will not be materially changed. ... from 2 to 20 cents per pound, and ... from ... to 4 cents. The whole ... of ... has been revised and reduced, and on many articles the reduction is considerable. Large ... also been revised and a large number ... the free list. ... have been readjusted, some ... the free list and ... increased duties. ... are not finished, and ... it is not possible ... they finally will stand. Cotton and its manufactures go over for further consideration ... might ... the free list ... that ... who favor the annexation of Canada ... the present ... desire ... be kept where they are in deference to the Western interest. The work on the bill is more than half completed, but the measure will not be reported ... toward the end of January.

THE GEORGIA BILL

was put through the House just as it came from the Senate this afternoon by yeas ... nays ... after Bingham's motion to postpone for a month had been rejected by 117 to 59. It will go to the President for his signature to-morrow. As soon as it is signed Governor Bullock will issue a proclamation requiring the Legislature as it was before the negroes were expelled to meet on Wednesday, the 12th of January. It originally consisted of 44 Senators and 1.. Representatives. Since it first met two members have been killed, five have died, and fifteen are refugees from the State, while Governor Bullock says twenty-nine more are ineligible. The bill does not make any provision for the districts unrepresented.

THE GEORGIA RECONSTRUCTION BILL.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 20.—The following is a copy of the bill to promote the reconstruction of the State of Georgia, as it finally passed the Senate at an early hour on Saturday morning:

Be it enacted, &c., That the Governor of the State of Georgia be and hereby is authorized and directed forthwith, by proclamation, to summon all persons elected to the General Assembly of said State, as appears by the proclamation of General G. Meade, the General commanding the military district including the State of Georgia, dated June 25, 1868, to appear on some certain day to be named in said proclamation at Atlanta, in said State, and thereupon the General Assembly shall proceed to perfect its organization in conformity with the Constitution and laws of the United States, according to the provisions of this act.

SEC. 2. And be it further enacted, that when the members so elected to said Senate and House of Representatives shall be convened as aforesaid, each and every member and each and every person claiming to be elected as a member of said Senate or House of Representatives shall, in addition to taking the oath or oaths required by the Constitution of Georgia, also take and subscribe and file in the office of the Secretary of State of the State of Georgia one of the following oaths or affirmations, namely:

I do solemnly swear (or affirm, as the case may be) that I have never held office or exercised the duties of a Senator or Representative in Congress, nor been a member of the Legislature of any State of the United States, nor held any civil office created by law for the administration of any general law of a State, or for the administration of justice in any State, or under the laws of the United States, nor held any office in the military or naval service of the United States, and thereafter engaged in the insurrection or rebellion against the United States, or gave aid and comfort to its enemies, or rendered, except in consequence of direct physical force, any support or aid to any insurrection or rebellion against the United States, nor held any office under or given any support to any government of any kind organized or acting in hostility to the United States, or levying war against the United States. So help me God; or on the pains and penalties of perjury, as the case may be; or the following oath or affirmation, viz:

I do solemnly swear (or affirm, as the case may be) that I have been relieved by an act of the Congress of the United States from disability as provided for in section three of the fourteenth amendment of the Constitution of the United States. So help me God; or on the pains and penalties of perjury, as the case may be; which oath or affirmation, when so filed, shall be entered on record by the Secretary of State of the State of Georgia, and said oath or affirmation, or copy of the record thereof duly certified by said Secretary of State, shall be evidence in all courts and places; and every person claiming to be so elected who shall refuse or decline or neglect or be unable to take one of the said oaths or affirmations above prescribed, shall not be admitted to a seat in said Senate or House of Representatives or to a participation in the proceedings thereof, but shall be deemed ineligible to such seats.

SEC. 3. SEC. 6. And be it further enacted, that the exclusion of any person or persons elected as aforesaid, being otherwise qualified, from participation in the proceedings of said Senate or House of Representatives upon the ground of race, color or previous condition of servitude, would be illegal and revolutionary, and is hereby prohibited.

SEC. 7. And be it further enacted, that upon the application of the Governor of Georgia, the President of the United States shall employ such military or naval forces of the United States as may be necessary to enforce and execute the provisions of this act.

SEC. 8. And be it further enacted, that the Legislature shall ratify the Fifteenth amendment proposed to the Constitution of the United States before Senators and Representatives from Georgia are admitted to seats in Congress.

SPANISH AFFAIRS.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 21.—The President to-day transmitted to the Senate ... in reply to the resolution calling for ... relating to ... with regard to Cuba. There is little new in the ... correspondence submitted, which includes Secretary Fish's protest against the Captain-General's authorization for capture on the high seas of vessels carrying men, arms and munitions of war in aid of the insurgents, which was subsequently revoked. The Secretary announces that our Government will not depart from its traditional policy of enforcing strict neutrality, while acknowledging that the sympathy of our people is with all efforts for the establishment of ... At another time the Secretary protests in the name of civilization and humanity against a ... barbarous proclamation. He demands upon the Spanish Government compensation for the families of Speakman and Wythe, citizens of the United States executed at Santiago. His demand for the modification of the Governor General's ... of the ... search ... vessels ... communication from Minister Sickles ... that the Spanish Ministry acknowledge ... and legal ... the United States had offered its ... and announcing that the Spanish ... to the Government ... make at the earliest ... self government.

... Minister Sickles also communicates, August 26, a conversation he had with ... Prim ... he ... with great earnestness ... Let the United States be assured of the good faith and the good disposition of Spain. Formidable as the insurrection may be ... it has not reached the proportions of any ... which governments have found themselves constrained to treat during ... The Cuban insurgents hold no ... they have no ... they have no army. They do not presume to offer or accept ... before the period for ... when Spain will send ... to ... the ... accept the assurances of the United States given on the faith of Spain that they may have their independence by laying down their arms, electing their deputy and declaring their right to be free by a vote of the people.

Minister Sickles to Secretary Fish, Aug. 4th, says: "In general I find less susceptibility to the idea of the transfer of the island to the United States than to a concession of the independence of Cuba; there is an apprehension that the persons and property of the Spaniards in Cuba would not be safe under Cuban control. This impression I heard prevails in Catalonia."

Mr. Roberts to Mr. Fish, Sept. 18th, submits various considerations and arguments against what he understands to be the settled purposes of the United States to accord belligerent rights to the Cuban insurgents. Fish replies under date of Oct. 13th: "It might be a sufficient answer to say that no intention to grant belligerent rights has been announced. It is a more perfect answer to say that no such intention has been reached by the United States."

Mr. Fish is pleased that Mr. Roberts draws his authorities from the history and from the statesmen of the United States, and reminds him that Spain conceded belligerent rights to the South sixty-six days after the bloodiest assault on Sumter. The United States have frequently remonstrated in the interest of humanity against the manner in which the Cuban contest is waged. The present state of affairs cannot be indefinitely prolonged, and the United States reserve the right of future action. Unlawful expeditions in aid of the Cuban insurgents have been planned, and one succeeded, but the United States has always been ready to act on information furnished by Mr. Roberts, and has acted on such information even when it has proved erroneous. Mr. Sickles telegraphs to Secretary Fish, Sept. 25th, that the volunteers are to be disbanded on the cessation of hostilities, scandalous executions are to be stopped, slavery to be gradually abolished, liberal reforms to be granted without waiting the termination of war. Mr. Davis, Sept. 8th, transmits the substance of Sickles' telegram to Mr. Plumb, and instructs him to inquire and report on the same. Mr. Plumb to Davis, Oct. 21st, reports he does not think the disarmament of volunteers practicable, and sees no intention to cease hostilities before the insurrection is suppressed. The rulers of Cuba desire to stop the effusion of blood, and the general opinion is that abolition should be gradual, but none think it should be done under five years.

Minister Sickles on Oct. 16 transmits to Secretary Fish a copy of a decree according liberty of worship in Cuba; a copy of Silvela's note desiring the President to use his influence with Cuban refugees to secure a less savage character of the war, and to release the Spanish gunboats, which are neither intended to operate against Peru or Cuba, but to defend the coast against filibusters and pirates. Consul Plumb to Secretary Fish, Oct. 14, states Sibanis, a hamlet, and Guaimaro, a village of 500 inhabitants, are the only places occupied by the insurgents, and on the 2d of November informs him that both those places have been destroyed. At the same time Consul Plumb encloses a circular inciting the negroes to burn the estates, forwarded by the Consul at Mantanzas, and said by him to have been probably printed in New York. Minister Sickles informs Secretary Fish, Nov. 14, that no reforms for Cuba will be brought forward till the hostile bands are dispersed, and subsequently advises him of the progress and consummation of various reforms for Porto Rico. Dec. 3, Mr. Sickles telegraphed Mr. Fish as follows: "The Foreign Secretary wishes to assure the United States Government that Spain now desires the most friendly relations with all American Republics, and intends in his Colonial policy to begin immediately the most liberal reforms."

Copies of affidavits submitted by Messrs. Lowry and Evarts to establish the existence of a state of war and an independent government in Cuba are furnished, with a letter dated Dec. ..., from Mr. Lowry to Mr. Fish, stating that the Attorney General had declined to consider said affidavits, ... and had clearly expressed the purpose of the Government. Attorney General Hoar, under date of Dec. 14, gives his opinion that it is not proper for the United States to ... the Spanish gunboats under the statute of 1818, and informs Mr. Fish that the Government has acted on this opinion.

THURSDAY MORNING, JANUARY 6, 1870

Some Consolation Still

The politicians of the Democratic faith have been for a year uttering the most lugubrious predictions of sad consequences to follow the adoption of the 15th amendment. It was to tear down the only remaining bulwarks of constitutional liberty, to destroy the sovereignty of the States, to centralize all power in a despotic government at Washington, etc. But the chief and most prolonged anguished howl was that it was to tear down the barriers which nature had fixed between the different races of man, and to make our future generations a mongrel hodge-podge. The distress of our Democratic brethren on this point has been apparently of the keenest character, and calculated to inspire genuine pity in the hearts of all beholders. We are pleased, however, to see, since it has become almost certain that the 15th amendment will be ratified by the requisite number of States, that our Democratic friends do not exhibit the least sign of an intention either to commit suicide or to colonize themselves in some country far, far away, but that they are solacing themselves with philosophy and drawing sweet consolation from the prospect which it opens to them of regaining political power. Their leaders are already proposing to go into the closest fraternity with their colored brethren, despite their late wails about mongrel hodge-podge manifest destiny. The negro is to be enfranchised and to help them into the offices. All that is to be done is to accept him as a man and brother, educate him into the full understanding of the "time-honored principles," to cure him of the unreasonable prejudices which he may have come to entertain of the Democratic branch of the Caucasian family through the stripes and sufferings of a century of bondage, to show him how plain it is that his old oppressor is now his best and dearest and only friend, how cruel it was in the Radicals to strike off his chains and break the happy domestic relations of master and slave, and how utterly he is lost in these troublous days if he do not rise up and embrace the man who bought and sold him and his wife and his child, and kiss the affectionate hand which whilom smote him.

Since the 15th amendment is manifest destiny, it gives the Democracy the most intense delight to know that it will also enable them to do all these charities to their fellow men of the colored persuasion, and to receive in return the gratitude of the negro in the form of a ballot headed "Democratic." Already movements are in progress to bring out a candidate for President in 1872, who shall be pleasing and comely in the eyes of "our fellow citizens, the colored men,"—a man who has "always been friendly to them." Already it is stated by Democratic authorities that Pendleton won't do, Hendricks won't do, Hoffman won't do, and that John Doe, Richard Roe, Smith, Brown, Jones, etc., won't do. These gentlemen have never been slave masters, nor drivers, nor abolitionists, and don't understand the infallible way by which the negro's confidence and affection may be gained. They have oftimes spoken abusively of the negro; have been known to protest against sleeping with him, have expressed an unwillingness to have their sisters marry him; and have said too many pungent and profoundly philosophical things about the dangers of mongrelism. It is clear, they won't do at all. The candidate must be a man who has always been a slave driver or always an abolitionist, and, therefore, "always friendly to the negro." In view of the hubbub which might be raised in certain quarters were any one of the distinguished gentlemen connected with the late government of the Confederate States of America to be nominated, it is thought to be impolitic as yet to bring forward such a candidate. Chase is the man, he was "always friendly to the negro," and as for the fact that he never was a Democrat, why that is not worth considering a moment against the other fact that he can secure the negro vote for the Democratic Presidential ticket. The 15th amendment is to make Chase the next President! And already Democrats are bowing meekly, gratefully and joyfully before that manifest destiny which, through Radical intolerance, is about to set them again around the flesh-pots of office.

Washington Territory Politics.

The Walla Walla Union of the 1st instant, publishes a "circular to the Republicans of Washington Territory," called out by the late circular issued by the bolting faction at Olympia. The names of one hundred and twenty-four of the Republicans of Walla Walla county are appended to the document. The Union, in referring to it, says "We have only space to give a few of the names signed thereto. We have heard of only one member of the party who declined to sign, and he claimed to indorse the position taken in the circular, but declined on the grounds of a private nature. There are some three hundred more names that might be given, but it is not worth while. The Republicans in Walla Walla county are as a unit, and are opposed to the Olympia bolters." We have other intelligence from Walla Walla which corroborates the Union's statement as to the unanimity of the party east of the mountains. The bilks and bolters at Olympia, who are trying to divide and destroy the Republican party of Washington Territory, have no friends or backers, save the Democracy in the eastern counties. We are further assured and reassured by numbers of gentlemen who are in position to know the state of feeling among the people, that the bolting faction on Puget Sound cannot count more adherents than on the day of the last election when they did what they could by voice, and many of them by vote, to elect the Democratic nominee for Delegate to Congress.

We have another piece of intelligence that may interest some of the bolting and disorganizing gentry of Washington Territory, who are unworthily holding office under a Republican administration. Our news is from Washington, under date of December 18, to the effect that "the proceedings of Gov. Flanders and other officials are attracting no ordinary attention at the Capital. Gov. Flanders' apostacy as well as that of other prominent officials who have recently joined hands with the Democracy in an organized attempt to destroy the Republican party of that Territory has met with general condemnation, and there remains no doubt that the President will soon displace every one of said officials by the appointment of their successors."

We have no hesitation in saying that, under the circumstances, the removal of these men would be simply an act of justice to the Republican party of Washington Territory, and a useful lesson to treacherous schemers everywhere. We shall rejoice to hear that it has been done.

Editorial Notes

We observe that some of the members of the Democratic State Central Committee and other wire pullers, have already arrived at this city in anticipation of the assembling of the Committee on Saturday the 8th inst.

Down goes the public debt, slowly but surely, under Secretary Boutwell's admirable financial administration. The reduction last month was but little [illegible] of $[illegible] with a coin balance in the Treasury of $[illegible] and of currency $12 [illegible]. This is a most gratifying exhibit.

There seems to be a fresh "corner" in Spanish affairs. The Duke of Genoa decidedly declines to be a king, whereupon General Prim and his ministerial chums take on a disgust of immense proportions, and vacate their comfortable offices. It may be that Spain is not so far from being a Republic as has been generally thought. The Republic has been held up as the next resort, in case the Duke of Genoa should decline the crown.

The article on "Oregon" published yesterday morning will appear in the WEEKLY OREGONIAN with some corrections and additions. It is endorsed by the "Board of Statistics and Immigration," of this State, which organization proposes to circulate a large number of the issue containing it. If others desire to secure copies to send to their friends at the East, they should apply early at our business office, No 5 Washington street, as the extra edition will be limited.

Advices from Washington inform us that it is the intention of the President to bring down the official axe upon the necks of a number of Territorial officials, other than those of Washington Territory, who have, since their appointment, pursued courses not in accordance with his strict views of official and political integrity. It is becoming quite plain that the tenure of office under President Grant depends not only upon strict official integrity and capacity but upon a decent regard for the appointing power as manifested by an adherence to the well established principles of the National Republican party, or in other words, if any official wants to act in concert with the Democratic party, or with corrupt "rings" of any sort, he must vacate his office to do it. The recreant officials of Washington Territory may as well prepare to shed their robes.

OREGON.

Rev. Ben Todd and wife are lecturing in Yamhill this week.

The new Council of the city of Salem were sworn into office on Tuesday, the 4th inst.

The Yamhill river has fallen so low since the cold weather set in that it is no longer navigable to McMinnville.

Dr. H. Herman, of Coos county, father of State Senator B. Herman, of Douglas, died at his home Dec 17th. He was a highly respected and beloved citizen.

A party of people at McMinnville "surprised" Eld Neill Johnson the other evening and presented him a handsome donation of coin and other valuables.

We see by one of the Washington City papers that L. O. Sterns of Eastern Oregon, was admitted on the 14th December, to the bar of the U S Supreme Court.

The village of Oakland, Umpqua, is reported to be enjoying a condition of general thrift, and to be making, lately, some very considerable improvements in the building line.

The Roseburg Ensign reports the arrival at Gardiner City of the machinery for the new steamer to navigate the Umpqua river. A Gardiner correspondent of the same paper says, Dec 23: Mr N Haun arrived here last night. After a careful examination of the river, he pronounces the Mill Rapids the most difficult point of navigation between Scottsburg and Roseburg. He is very sanguine of the enterprise.

The Statesman has the following: "Superintendent Meacham telegraphed yesterday to Mr. C. S. Woodworth, Chief Clerk, that he reached Ashland that morning at seven, and that he would take the stage last evening for Salem. He will probably be home on Saturday, accompanied by Dr McKay. A letter of late date announces that he has succeeded in persuading all the remaining Modoc Indians to remove to the Klamath Reservation, in number about 200. Old Chief Jack with fourteen men, women and children was the only one who made serious objections, and he finely made a proposition to remove with the rest, which Mr Meacham was able to accept. So, probably, the whole tribe are now on that Reservation. The disinterested traders of Yreka, California, are supposed to have influenced Jack and his Indians to remain within reach of their traffic, and that has probably been one cause of their hesitation to remove to Klamath at an earlier period. Mr Meacham met them, by appointment, at Link River bridge, in Oregon, and treated with them successfully there.

WASHINGTON TERRITORY.

(From the Walla Walla Union, Jan 1)

The steamers from Celilo to Wallula have been laid up, and will not make regular trips until the spring trade opens. There is no ice to interfere with navigation on the river, neither is there any indication at present that there will be any this winter, but the reason for drawing off the boats is a dullness of business in the freight and passenger line.

The Teachers Institute has been in session during a part of this week. Quite a number of the teachers of the county and valley were not present, among whom was the Superintendent of Schools for this county.

(From the Statesman, Jan 1)

The new discovery on the Missoula has caused quite an excitement, and already we hear of some twenty persons who have fitted out and started for the scene of the new diggings. Later accounts state that the mines are even richer than was first reported, and all agree in pronouncing the new gold fields as among the most promising ever discovered in the Northern country.

Capt Julius' pack train of 28 animals, loaded with merchandise for Oppenheimer & Co, Fort Colville, started out in the early part of the week. A gentleman just down from Colville, informs us that nowhere on the road is the snow over an inch deep and that trains have no difficulty in making the trip.

IDAHO

The Boise Statesman of Dec 28th, contains an account of the fatal shooting, at that place, of a colored barber by the name of Bob Moody, by another colored man named West. The two men quarrelled at a gaming table, and whiskey, as usual, was at the bottom of the affair.

The Statesman says the verdict of acquittal in the Burmester case was received with "astonishment by the people of Idaho City," and that the news was at first generally discredited at Boise. It says: "Burmester is acquitted by law, but he has been and is being tried by another tribunal—the moral sense of the community, which more lax than it ought to be is still tense enough and keen enough to condemn not only the culminating act of this sad tragedy, but all the glaring misconduct that led to it." The Boise Chronicle uses language less delicate and less temperate, coupling the names of the various parties, in the tragedy, in terms too offensive for reprint.

The Boston Advertiser reports that at Machiasport, Me., in the harbor opposite the wharves there is frequently an upheaval by some power altogether unknown of vast quantities of water, mud, and stone to the distance of many feet, and with a furious rushing noise. This phenomenon has occurred quite a number of times during the summer, and one as late as a month ago.

During the year ending December 1, the Milwaukee & St. Paul Railroad has carried from La Crosse to Milwaukee, 4,573,541 bushels of wheat, and 144,213 barrels of flour. Of this, over two thirds has been handled, since the 1st day of September. Nearly all of this was produced in Minnesota.

DISPATCHES TO THE OREGONIAN.

EASTERN DATES TO JANUARY 5.

Telegraph Operators' Strike

CHICAGO, Jan 4.—A large number of telegraph operators are arriving, being assigned to duty in this city and offices in the vicinity. The others think they will have little difficulty hereafter, and express a determination not to employ any strikers as operators.

PITTSBURG, Jan 4.—The office was left at nine o'clock this morning.

New York News.

NEW YORK, Jan. 4.—The French Opera ball in the Theatre Francais last night was largely attended by the demi monde and ward politicians. The usual license prevailed but no disturbances.

Mrs. Georgiana Kinney, the divorced wife of Cortland Kinney, one of the Poughkeepsie Knickerbockers, made application lately before Judge Freeman to open the judgment of divorce granted against her. The Kinneys moved in highly fashionable circles, and the scandal has occasioned much comment. The reported infidelity occurred during last summer at Long Branch. Yesterday Judge Freeman denied the motion to open the divorce.

The terrible love tragedy on Elizabeth street, excited general interest yesterday. To day fresh developments were made, and it is now evident that the cause of the murder and suicide was fear upon the part of the murderer that he would soon be deprived of the means of continuing the intimacy with his victim. The parties were school teachers in Brooklyn. The man Bauman was principal in the same school in which Miss McNamara and Mrs Allemargo were assistants. Bauman had a wife living, who informed the reporter yesterday that her husband was a good man until the schoolmistress won his affections from her. Mrs Allemargo was the divorced wife of a dissolute Spaniard.

Navigation in the Hudson is completely reopened.

Interesting from Pembina

ST PAUL, Jan 4.—A special dispatch states that private information from Pembina on perfectly reliable authority, says the United States Government has been notified from a source it is bound to take notice of, that Canadian adherents in the Red River country have incited the Sioux to raid on Pembina and St. Joseph, in retaliation, as is alleged, for aid and countenance given to the Red River rebellion by American citizens. The information came from a person in the counsel of the Canadian government, that the gentleman to whom it is given, might provide for his own personal safety, and he was assured that before spring the settlements on the American side of the boundary would be wiped out by Sioux marauders.

A Row among Theater Managers.

CHICAGO, Jan 4.—Joseph Jefferson instituted a suit in the United States District Court against C. D. Hesse and C. H. Crosby, for bringing out "Rip Van Winkle" at Crosby's Opera House. The complaint recites the story of the play which he declares was written expressly for him. He holds a copyright of the play, which has never been published, only written for acting.

Departure of Filibusters.

A New York special says the American Annexation League state that half of their men have already left for the Red River country in small squads, and will travel in such a way that they cannot be interfered with by the authorities.

Supposed Death in the Late Great Storm.

BUFFALO, Jan 4.—Leonard Crocker, well known as the lessee of the New York Central Cattle Yards hotel, left the city Sunday night in a buggy with a hired man for home, two miles distant, since when, nothing has been heard of him. It is supposed he was caught in the blinding snow storm and drowned in the current which swept the turnpike near the beach during the night.

From Texas—Davis' Majority.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 4.—A despatch from General Reynolds, received by the President this morning, states that all but four counties in Texas are heard from, the returns giving Davis 775 majority.

New York Legislature.

ALBANY, Jan 4.—The first bill introduced into the State Legislature to-day, was for the repeal of the excise laws.

Tweed introduced a resolution in the Senate repealing the adoption of the fifteenth amendment.

Stampede of Telegraph Operators.

PITTSBURG, Jan 4.—The telegraph operators in the Western Union office left their instruments at nine o'clock this morning. The officers of the Company secured enough men however to do the business as usual.

CINCINNATI, Jan. 4.—No particular change in the telegraphic strike. The officers of the company are confident of their ability to attend to all business.

A meeting of the bar was held this forenoon in reference to the death of Gen. McGroarty. A meeting of the military organization with which the deceased had been connected was also held and a committee was appointed to wait upon the Commissioners and request the appointment of a person as County Clerk who will give the proceeds of the office to the family of the deceased.

From Tennessee.

NASHVILLE, Jan 4.—In view of the probable suspension of the public schools, the Germans of Nashville are taking steps to organize an English free school of their own.

The Conservatives carried the election at Knoxville, electing the Mayor and carrying all the wards. Radical heretofore.

ST LOUIS, Jan 4. The residence of ex United States Senator D. K. Atchison, near Plattsburg, Missouri, was burned yesterday with the contents, including a large library, loss, twenty thousand dollars.

BY ATLANTIC CABLE

ROME, Jan 3.—The Bishop of Panama is dead.

MADRID, Jan. 4.—A decided negation has been received from Italy in the matter of the candidature of the Duke of Genoa. As a consequence Gen. Prim and all the rest of the Ministry have resigned.

LONDON, Jan. 4.—The Times this morning in commenting upon the Democratic advocacy of Republican principles, says fears from that quarter is due to the fact that American bonds bearing high interest are not so near par as consols.

The great danger of the country, according to the Marysville Appeal, at the present time, is "American laziness." Americans are lazy, but somehow an idea has got abroad that wealth comes more certainly from speculations, trade, and schemes, than from hard work, which is a mistake. Although large fortunes are made in the way suggested, labor piles up the riches of the country. Even in San Francisco, the bulk of our wealth is in the hands of laboring men. Probably half the banking capital of the city is owned by mechanics and ordinary laborers. Our savings banks are a demonstration of this. The man who labors in California is by no means in a precarious condition. Our troubles arise principally from too many persons desiring to get rich without work. There are absolutely thousands in this city who had better go to work with their hands than try to live in the way they do. And if they were to do this, the times would at once improve. Labor—absolutely hard manual labor—is the only means to success with nine tenths of the population of the world.

The marine disasters of the Great Lakes in 1869 have numbered 1,814, and the total loss is upwards of four million dollars. This is a large increase over the total number of last year. The disasters reported in November number 403, involving damage to property of upward of $2,000,000. These are probably the highest figures ever reached in any one month since the navigation of the lakes began. The loss of life during the season was considerably less than in 1868.

A Western poet has found inspiration in the Richardson-McFarland affair, and after a decidedly original statement of the case he moralizes thus:

"Oh wrong—tis dangerous to peril your life,
To touch man's honor or his wife,
Public opinion will not allow
Meddling in families anyhow."

School Taxes.

TAX PAYERS ARE HEREBY NOTIFIED THAT the Directors of School District No. one (1), Multnomah county, State of Oregon, have placed the Assessment Roll of said District for the year 1869 in my hands, with instructions to collect the taxes therein specified; and I will be at my office, No. 26 Front street, Oregon Steam Navigation Co.'s Block, for ten (10) days to receive and receipt for the same.

And notice is also hereby given, that at or the expiration of the said ten days, I will proceed to collect the taxes remaining unpaid in the manner authorized by the warrant of the said Directors to me delivered.
EDW. QUACKENBUSH,
Clerk of School District No. 1, Multnomah Co., Or.

The Directors of School District No. 1 especially desire Taxpayers to have AMPLE NOTICE that School Taxes are NOW due, and that PAYMENT IS REQUIRED. I am therefore authorized to announce that the ten (10) days time mentioned in the foregoing notice has been extended to January 7, 1869, during which time I will be at my office to receive and receipt for Taxes.
By order. EDW. QUACKENBUSH,
Portland, Dec. 25, 1869. d27dtd School Clerk.

CITY

COMMON COUNCIL.—Wednesday [illegible]

[illegible]

The following message of the M[illegible] and placed on file:

[illegible] Januar[illegible]

To the Hon. [illegible] Common [illegible]

[illegible] of a new year [illegible] the continued prosperity of our [illegible] have good reason to rejoice for [illegible] ings bestowed upon us during the [illegible] wharves resound with the busy bu[illegible] commerce, our streets are alive [illegible] tread of an enterprising and ind[illegible] ation good order and peace preva[illegible]

By the accompanying report o[illegible] dor you will see that the finances [illegible] upon a good basis, that notwi[illegible] many street and other improvement[illegible] the last year we enter the new on[illegible] ing created any debts, but with a[illegible] our treasury the revenue for the [illegible] year available for still further imp[illegible] for the government of the city pre[illegible] enviable contrast to the financia[illegible] other cities of equal size and popula[illegible] object of congratulation that our c[illegible] ious and eager to make street imp[illegible] willingly pay taxes levied for such [illegible] this connection I would state tha[illegible] Auditor's report shows the cost [illegible] streets to be $35,000 that the actu[illegible] less than $70,000, the difference be[illegible] work done by property holders in [illegible] letting of contracts by the city and [illegible] have no hesitancy in saying that [illegible] ty and population increase, so wi[illegible] vance in public improvements and [illegible] with other cities of our country [illegible] much is to be done yet, and I beg [illegible] the welfare of our city your contin[illegible] By comparing the assessment rolls [illegible] and 69 and '70 you will find an in[illegible] and personal property of nearly [illegible] hundred thousand dollars, a very [illegible] sult considering the general dep[illegible] which trade on this coast has labor[illegible] past year. Notwithstanding this fa[illegible] ing real estate has appreciated at a [illegible] ratio than the assessment roll denote[illegible] ter is somewhat deficient and I woul[illegible] it should be so amended as to c[illegible] Equalization empowering said Bo[illegible] raise or lower assessments, so tha[illegible] pay their just proportion of taxe[illegible] may feel justly aggrieved find redre[illegible] tion with this, I would recommend [illegible] deavor to have our charter so amend[illegible] your honorable body power to tax [illegible] ance companies, at least to the am[illegible] sent upon their gross premiums for [illegible] through their agents here. It is b[illegible] proper that such companies doing b[illegible] midst should equally bear the burde[illegible] with the balance of our citizens. A[illegible] for the increase of our police force ha[illegible] before your honorable body, but [illegible] passed for good reasons assigned at [illegible] I wish to impress it upon you that i[illegible] is too [illegible] our police force and revi[illegible] ordinances which are in many [illegible] and need revision in many particu[illegible] give this your early attention.

Our Fire Department is in a very [illegible] and it is very gratifying to certify [illegible] feeling and harmony which exists [illegible] members and that it has acquired [illegible] for promptness and efficiency to whi[illegible] sently entitled, and although of con[illegible] pense to the city, yet it is managed m[illegible] ically than in most other cities. I thi[illegible] is proper now to create limits with[illegible] more wooden buildings should be e[illegible] mencing with a small radius and exte[illegible] the city grows larger. As stated ab[illegible] still a great deal to be done in the way [illegible] provements and I would suggest that o[illegible] so amended that it will not, in the fu[illegible] such a lengthy time of notice to begin [illegible] of street improvements, by doing which [illegible] could be completed during the [illegible] [illegible] correctly at a less expense to th[illegible] holders. One of your honorable body [illegible] resolution sometime ago in [illegible] chase of a rain gauge, with the view [illegible] ding at an early day, a system of [illegible] this city. This is a highly important [illegible] ought to be commenced before all of [illegible] are fully improved. There should be [illegible] a small special tax levied, collected an[illegible] for and in the improvement of our [illegible] by which means we can gradually [illegible] and at the end of five or six years ha[illegible] such a state which if all done in one [illegible] be burdensome to the tax payers."

As our city increases in size and p[illegible] will become necessary to build a Ci[illegible] as there also exists a necessity for a [illegible] sated public Market House, would it [illegible] to hold out inducements to capitali[illegible] both combined, the lower part to be [illegible] Market House and the upper as a C[illegible] think it would pay good interest [illegible] ment or the city could build both, [illegible] the revenue from a Market House w[illegible] the interest on the whole expenditur[illegible] city, the use of a City Hall, without [illegible] whatever.

We ought by all means to prevail u[illegible] Legislature to pass quarantine laws, [illegible] ships arriving at Astoria, to get he[illegible] from a proper officer, there, before [illegible] any further. At present we have [illegible] whatever against having contagious [illegible] ported into our State. The Courts [illegible] cided that the city has no right to le[illegible] street between Third and Fourth str[illegible] it would be well to commence pro[illegible] that part of the street lying adjacent [illegible] be Plaza vacated.

I would call your attention also, to [illegible] and progressively increasing expendi[illegible] City Government, and although sati[illegible] finances of the city are managed wi[illegible] tegrity, yet I cannot avoid suggesti[illegible] economy and stricter scrutiny of clai[illegible] in the several committees.

In conclusion gentlemen, let me t[illegible] behalf of the citizens for the faith[illegible] and often thankless services which y[illegible] dered in your official capacity, duri[illegible] past and with my best wishes for [illegible] welfare.

I am very truly yours,
B. GOLDSMIT[illegible]

CITY.

COMMON COUNCIL.—Wednesday evening Jan 5, 1870, the Common Council of the city of Portland met at the usual hour, his Honor Mayor Goldsmith, in the Chair

Present, Councilmen Besser, Ellis, Frank, Gree, Hopkins, Moffett, Porter and Ripley

Journal of the last meeting read and approved.

MAYOR'S MESSAGE

The following message of the Mayor was read and placed on file

PORTLAND January 5th 1870

To the Honorable the Common Council of the City of Portland—GENTLEMEN At the beginning of a New Year I cannot but congratulate you on the continued prosperity of our good city We have good reason to rejoice for the many blessings bestowed upon us during the past year Our wharves resound with the busy hum of a thriving commerce; our streets are alive with the active tread of an enterprising and industrious population; good order and peace prevail

By the accompanying report of the City Auditor you will see that the finances of our city are upon a good basis, that notwithstanding the many street and other improvements made during the last year, we enter the new one without having created any debts, but with a balance in the city treasury, the revenue for the coming fiscal year available for still further improvements and for the government of the city presenting no unenviable contrast to the financial condition of other cities of equal size and population. It is an object of congratulation that our citizens are anxious and eager to make street improvements and willingly pay taxes levied for such purposes In this connection I would state that although the Auditor's report shows the cost of improving streets to be $38,000, that the actual cost is not less than $70,000, the difference being the cost of work done by property holders in advance of the letting of contracts by the city authorities, and I have no hesitancy in saying that as our prosperity and population increases, so will our city advance in public improvements and give us a rank with other cities of our country It is true that much is to be done yet, and I beg of you to give the welfare of our city your continued attention

By comparing the assessment rolls of 1868 1869, and '69 and '70, you will find an increase in real and personal property of nearly ($600,000) six hundred thousand dollars, a very gratifying result, considering the general depression under which trade on this coast has labored during the past year. Notwithstanding this favorable showing, real estate has appreciated at a much greater rate than the assessment roll denotes Our charter is somewhat deficient and I would suggest that it should be so amended as to create a Board of Equalization, empowering said Board either to raise or lower assessments, so that all citizens pay their just proportion of taxes and all who feel justly aggrieved find redress In connection with this, I would recommend that we endeavor to have our charter so amended as to give your honorable body power to tax foreign insurance companies, at least to the amount of 2 per cent upon their gross premiums for policies issued through their agents here. It is but right and proper that such companies doing business in our midst should equally bear the burden of taxation with the balance of our citizens An ordinance for the increase of our police force has been lately before your honorable body, but has not been passed for good reasons assigned at the time, but I wish to impress it upon you that it is necessary to increase our police force and revise our police ordinances, which are in a very crude state as yet and need revision in many particulars Please give this your early attention.

Our Fire Department is in a very efficient state and it is very gratifying to certify to the good feeling and harmony which exists among the members and that it has acquired a reputation for promptness and efficiency to which it is eminently entitled, and although of considerable expense to the city, yet it is managed more economically than in most other cities I think it would be proper now to create limits within which no more wooden buildings should be erected, commencing with a small radius and extending it as the city grows larger As stated above, there is still a great deal to be done in the way of street improvements and I would suggest that our charter be so amended that it will not, in the future, require such a lengthy time of notice to be given for intended improvements, by doing which street work could be completed during the summer months and frequently at a less expense to the property owners. One of your honorable body introduced a resolution sometime ago in reference to the purchase of a rain gauge, with the view of commencing at an early day, a system of sewerage in this city. This is a highly important matter, and ought to be commenced before all of our streets are fully improved There should be, every year, a small special tax levied, collected and expended, in the improvement of our city Parks, by which means we can gradually improve them, and at the end of five or six years have them in a good state, which if all done in one year would be burdensome to the tax payers

As our city increases in size and population, it will become necessary to build a City Hall, and as there also exists a necessity for a centrally located public Market House, would it not be well to hold out inducements to capitalists to build both combined, the lower part to be used as a Market House, and the upper as a City Hall. I think it would pay good interest on the investment, or the city could build both, and I think the rents from a Market House would pay all interest on the whole expenditure, giving the city the use of a City Hall, without any expense whatever.

We ought by all means to prevail upon our next Legislature to pass quarantine laws, compelling ships arriving at Astoria, to get health permits from a proper officer, there, before proceeding any further. At present we have no protection whatever against having contagious diseases imported into our State. The Courts having decided that the city has no right to fence in Main street, between Third and Fourth streets I think it would be well to commence proceedings to have that part of the street lying adjacent to the Public Plaza vacated.

I would call your attention also, to the largely and progressively increasing expenditures of our City Government, and although satisfied that the affairs of the city are managed with strict integrity, yet I cannot avoid suggesting a closer scrutiny and stricter scrutiny of claims presented to the several committees

In conclusion, gentlemen, let me thank you in behalf of the citizens, for the faithful, valuable and often thankless services which you have rendered in your official capacity, during the year past, and with my best wishes for your future welfare,

I am, very truly, yours,
B. GOLDSMITH, Mayor

PETITIONS, MEMORIALS, ETC.

The remonstrance of John M Drake and others, against the proposed improvement of South Front Street was read and referred to the Committee on Streets and Public Property

Communication from A. C Gibbs and others, protesting against improving certain streets in Carruthers' Addition, was read and referred to the same committee.

REPORTS OF COMMITTEES

The Committee on Streets and Public Property reported the survey and plats of certain streets in Carruthers' Addition, as returned by the City Surveyor, as deficient, and recommended that he be instructed to make a further survey Report adopted. The same committee reported that the contract for fitting up the Surveyor's office had been awarded to J. D McDonald, at $105 50 Report placed on file.

REPORT OF OFFICERS

The City Attorney reported the state of the several suits at law in which the city was a party Report ordered filed

The Chief Engineer of the Fire Department made his annual report, which was read and placed on file.

The Street Commissioner's report was also read and placed on file.

The City Surveyor submitted his report for the year, which was read and placed on file

(Councilman Hopkins appeared and took his seat.)

The City Treasurer's report for the quarter ending December 31 1869 was read and referred to the Committee on Accounts and Current Expenses.

The Auditor and Clerk presented his annual report, which was read and referred to the Committee on Ways and Means and the Auditor instructed to furnish each of the morning papers of this city with a copy for publication

The Reports of the Marshal and Recorder for the month of December, 1869 and the Auditor's report thereon, were read and referred to the Committee on Accounts and Current Expenses

The Chief Engineer reported recommending the erection of a tower and the purchase of a large alarm bell, and the employment of an engineer for the fire companies having steam engines Report referred to the Committee on Fire and Water.

CLAIMS AGAINST THE CITY

Warrants were ordered drawn in payment of the following claims Oregon Herald $25, Portland Gas Light Co, $4 [illegible], C H Myers, 75 cents; Phil Saunders $20; P [illegible] Bulger $16 [illegible]; Geo H Durham $1 [illegible], [illegible] Tucker $13 50; J D McDonald two bills $1 [illegible] 50; C A Stewart $1 [illegible]; City Surveyor and Assistants $113 The bills of A M Snyder ($6 20) and of C H Myers, ($30 10) were referred to the Committee on Accounts and Current Expenses

An ordinance raising the salary of the Street Commissioner to $1 500 per annum read a first and second time and referred to the Committee on Accounts and Current Expenses

MISCELLANEOUS

The Auditor was instructed to draw a warrant for $100 in favor of H McDonald for the erection of music stand in the Plaza

The Auditor was instructed to give notice that the Common Council proposes to improve Salmon and Twelfth streets

A motion was made and prevailed that R V Short be paid $16 witness fees in city cases

On motion adjourned.

SUNDRY ITEMS The bark A. Heaton, now lying at Astoria, will sail on Saturday for South America with about 300,000 feet of lumber

The schooner Tillamook at Moffett & Stephens's wharf, is loading with lumber produce, salt and groceries

The [illegible] will start for Honolulu on Friday with a cargo of lumber

The steamship Montana will not sail until next Saturday at four o'clock P M

Repairs on Estes & Simpson's saw mill necessitated a stoppage of the saws during this week

One hundred and fifty dollars will repair the damage done to the Main street wharf by the breakdown on Tuesday evening

The brig North Star, from San Francisco went down to Astoria yesterday in tow of the Okanagan yesterday She carried a full cargo—about 300 tons

The Whistler will sail for San Francisco the latter part of this week She also will take away a fair freight

Portland is now without any regular place of amusement, and to the many strangers in our midst must appear very dull It is reported, however, that Mr Carter will return from Victoria with a first class dramatic troupe, about the middle of the present month

Some very large and fat, dressed hogs were brought down from Oregon City on the boat yesterday afternoon

Parties from Salem have purchased a large interest in the Oregon Iron Works in this city

A First street merchant, and a first rate one at that, was up before the Recorder yesterday for leaving his wares on the sidewalk

Prospects for a rise in the skate market are noticed as better, the weather yesterday being the coldest yet felt this winter The mercury stood at 26 degrees early yesterday morning, with a heavy frost—ground pretty hardly frozen

MILITARY —We publish the following memoranda, extracted from the Roster of troops serving in the Department of the Columbia, issued January 1, 1870

Brevet Colonel David Perry Captain First Cavalry, on leave of absence, for four months per Special Orders, No 241

Brevet Colonel John J Coppinger, Captain Twenty Third Infantry, on detached service, per Special Orders, No 195

Captain J L Smyth, Twenty Third Infantry, en route to join Regiment, per Special Orders No 293.

Brevet Lieutenant Colonel Albert O. Vincent, First Lieutenant Second Artillery on leave of absence for six (6) month, per Special Orders No 26

First Lieutenant W W Pollock, Adjutant Twenty Third Infantry en route to join Headquarters of his Regiment, per Special Orders No. 1 0

First Lieutenant J H Hall, First Cavalry on leave of absence pending action of War Department, on resignation

Second Lieutenant John P Peterson, Twenty Third Infantry, on leave of absence for 60 days, per Special Orders, No 294

Second Lieutenant J W Tanfield late Seventeenth Infantry, assigned to Twenty Third Infantry, per General Orders, No 59 (Not yet joined)

CRIMES AND ARRESTS —From the book kept by the City Marshal we gather the following facts in relation to arrests, crimes, and misdemeanors occurring in the city of Portland since December 31st, 1868 Whole number of arrests 497, of these, 215 were for offenses against the State laws murder, 7, assault with intent to kill 5, assault with a dangerous weapon, 8 grand larceny, 11, petty larceny, 19 assault and battery 121 assault, 6, miscellaneous, 45

The number of city cases during the year is 282, classified thus drunkenness, 200 disturbing the peace, 23, obstructing streets and sidewalks, 6, fast driving 5, selling without license, 10, miscellaneous, 51 The number of arrests made in the first six months of the year was 258, in the last six months, 239. These figures are not large for a city the size of Portland and show very well for the good order of our people

U S CIRCUIT COURT Hon Matthew P Deady, Judge Yesterday in this Court the proceedings were as follows:

John R. Lamb et al vs I A Davenport et al, motion to suppress depositions, denied

James B. Newby et al, vs O C R R Co et al, motion to dismiss bill denied, because complainant had no notice of the filing pleas, etc, and on motion of complainant and by consent of defendants, the hearing on the pleas and demurrer to amended bill set for the 11th of Feb next

John R. Lamb et al vs A R Burbank et al; hearing on demurrer to bill submitted; Hill and Thayer for complainants, Logan for defendants

John R Lamb et al vs L H Wakefield et al, hearing on demurrer to bill

Adjourned until 10 o'clock A M to-day.

SCALPED —A day or two since, Mr Burtch, engaged in turning the building known as St Stephen's Chapel around, was at work underneath the arms of the capstan, on which was tightly streched a rope The catch in the capstan by some means gave way, and quick as thought the arms made two revolutions, one of them grazing the top of Mr Burtch's head close enough to take the scalp off a spot about the size of a man's hand The blow was quite severe, knocking him down and rendering him insensible for the time being Had it struck him fairly on the side of the head, it would very likely have proved fatal.

GONE HOME —Major George Williams, at his own request, has been relieved from active duty on the Staff of General Crook, intending to take up his permanent residence at Salem, his former home Major W has proven an efficient and worthy soldier, and we doubt not, that while his many friends at the capital will welcome him again to the walks of civil life, his brother officers will regret his absence from military circles

THE BROKEN WHARF The break in Stephens & Moffett's wharf was not so extensive as was at first supposed. Several tons of salt had been deposited on the upper floor A section of this floor about 20 by 30 feet gave way, and the salt came down to the first floor, breaking a small hole in that through which a few sacks fell into the river. The damage is not great beyond the loss of a few sacks of salt

INCORRECT — Some of the Oregon papers have published a statement that Hon Jesse Applegate had been appointed Chief Engineer of the Oregon Central Railroad, East side, instead of Mr Brooks removed This is all a grand mistake, as no such action has been taken nor any disposition to make such change manifested on the part of any one

LAW OFFICE MOVED The numerous clients and friends of Messrs Mitchell Dolph & Smith, will hereafter find them most elegantly located in a suit of rooms on the second floor of Odd Fellows' Temple corner of First and Alder streets They were busy yesterday moving into their new office

DISAGREED The jury in the case of Mathews Murray S[illegible] and Thompson for assaulting the mate on the Montana, before the Recorder yesterday were unable to agree and were discharged The four defendants were remanded to jail and will have another trial to day

DIRECTORS ELECTED The stockholders of the Oregon Iron Works met at the office of the company at 10 A M and elected the following named members as a Board of Directors for the ensuing year David McCully, E N Cooke, J Myers, J B Prine and J [illegible] Starkey

WILL BE SOLD The entire fixtures and furniture of the What Cheer House will be sold at auction by John Dolan Deputy United States Marshal on next Saturday The sale is under proceedings in bankruptcy against the estate of James Lyons late proprietor

FURNITURE SALE Mr Richardson will sell an elegant lot of furniture to day at the late residence of Mr Shanahan corner of East Park and Taylor streets A good opportunity will be given to those who wish to go to house keeping

FIRE The store of L Friedenrich, corner of First and Washington street, was almost entirely consumed by fire at about 2 o'clock this morning It was put out without much damage to adjoining buildings Too late for particulars

HEARD FROM —Mr H W Scott as we learn by letter arrived at San Francisco on the 21st December and left by rail for the East on the 24th He has probably arrived before this time at Washington or New York

SMELT Mr Quinn of the [illegible] Market on Washington street has received a lot of these delicious little fish, the first of the season They are in great demand and those wishing them should call early this morning

NO BUSINESS The County Court convened yesterday morning at the usual hour, but transacted no business, other than to adjourn until Friday at one o'clock P M, at which time the Board of Commissioners will meet.

OFFICIAL U. S Attorney Cartwright and Marshal Young are both on a tour up the valley looking after the interests of the U S Their trip may have to do with the approaching term of the District Court

READ THIS Then read the advertisement of Koshland Bros and you will see what they have for sale at their new store in the Odd Fellows Temple They are bound to share the public patronage

CATHOLIC LIBRARY The members of the Catholic Library and Christian Doctrine Society will hold their annual meeting for the election of officers this evening at their rooms on Stark street at 7 30

WELL ATTENDED The musical performance at the Plaza yesterday was listened to by a large and admiring crowd, notwithstanding the chilliness of the atmosphere

NO ELECTION No election was had at the meeting of the stockholders of the Willamette Iron Works yesterday The meeting was adjourned until to day

NEW OFFICE The City Surveyor and his aids are now comfortably situated in their new office adjoining the Council Chamber and Auditor's Office

FLOUR —The boats from Oregon City yesterday brought down 338,200 lbs of flour, making 565,050 pounds this week

OBLIGED We are much obliged to Purser Gonthue of the Telfair for late Victoria papers and other favors

ARRIVED The Gussie Telfair arrived from Victoria at 11 o'clock last night

VANDERBILT, STEWART, LAW AND ASTOR are all exceedingly unpopular men in New York No poor man cares for them but the poor as well as the rich man of Portland care for Barman Bros because they sell their Clothing so cheap, at the Odd Fellows Temple First Street

THE FIRST HEBREW BENEVOLENT SOCIETY of Portland Oregon, will hold its regular meeting Sunday January 9 1870, at 1½ o'clock P M at the Turn Verein Hall
ISAAC N WALTER Sec'y

BOYS' CLOTHING —Another addition to the already large stock of Boys Clothing was received by Kohn & Fishel They are really handsome and all custom made There is nothing more appropriate or more serviceable for a Christmas gift to a boy than one of those handsome suits Kohn & Fishel's stock of clothing cannot be surpassed An examination of their stock will convince all that their stock is the best and at the lowest prices

THE STOCK BOOKS of the Puget Sound Homestead Association are open for subscriptions and the Stock is being rapidly taken Persons desiring Stock have only to apply to the Secretary at No 5 Washington street or to Mr Wm G Conklin, Canvassing Agent for the Association The Association have purchased 2,314 acres of land located at so many important points on the Sound that some of them must be at or near the terminus of the great Northern Pacific Railroad in which event they would almost immediately become of almost incalculable value This is divided into three hundred shares at $100 per share payable in monthly installments of $5 per month Each shareholder has an equal undivided interest in all the lands The terms are so easy that persons of limited means may invest money that is sure to increase ten to one hundred fold within three or four years

The Great American Lunch Eater Reviewed

OUR REPORTER HAS A HIGH OLD TIME

In order to get the views on the situation of affairs of the ablest and most talented noted characters of the city we hastily dispatched our heavy reporter on this important mission. After no little trouble he succeeded in drawing out the above named individual, and gained from him the following information, to wit, viz:

After having explained to him the object of this meeting he expressed his willingness to give us any information we might desire on any topic, whether he possessed it or not.

The Lunch Eater is a man of rather prepossessing means but does not readily possess anything that we are aware of. He is of a pleasing appearance only when he is otherwise and fearlessly takes his "hash" like other men of less note—when he can get it. He is about the usual size of men of his standing and looks as though he had seen better days; if he has not he has experienced considerable bad weather.

In order to speak with more freedom and latitude, we were cordially invited not into the parlor of a brothel but into his office or place of business—on the pave in front of —— as when we accosted him he was zealously and energetically pursuing his daily occupation—leading a desperate onslaught on ——'s lunch table.

From this minute and searching examination we were satisfied that the distinguished gentleman in question was equal to the emergency, and from his general outline as far as we had seen was like other men, generally speaking.

Being a novice in this matter of interviewing or skinning, and not having the ready assistance of either of the gentlemanly (?) flats from the Alta or Chronicle, who fully understand and naturally delight in such dirty work, we did not enter into a minute inspection of his person or soiled linen, but proceeded to "biz."

Rep.—You are the Great American Lunch Eater?

L. E.—So called.

Rep.—Do you think there is a hereafter?

L. E.—That is a foreign question.

Rep.—Do you regard it wise on the part of the general government to—

L. E.—On that point I beg leave to take the subject under consideration.

Rep.—Please state your views, liberally, on the currency question.

L. E.—Without reserve, a short bit is a good thing to have about your clothes.

Rep.—Can you observe, in casting your eye over the political horizon, that—

L. E.—J—— sets a very good lunch and has most excellent oyster soup?

Rep.—You are probably aware, if not you have doubtless heard that at this present juncture of affairs, there are several Chinese temporarily sojourning in our midst. Which subject of immigration is now agitating the minds of the American people, and—

L. E.—I give it up.

Rep.—To the point. What is your opinion in regard to population generally?

L. E.—After an extensive mature deliberation, I have arrived at the firm conclusion that there are comparatively speaking more women and children in large cities than are usually found in towns or villages of smaller dimensions.

Rep.—You are quite positive of this fact?

L. E.—(fiercely)—Young man, I speak to you free and without mental reservation, but never since the day when I first observed the light of this world—

Rep.—To be precise in this particular allow me to interrupt you. Did this important and early event in your life take place before or after the noted whisky insurrection?

L. E.—To the best of my recollection, I think it did, but will not be positive.

With this lucid explanation our reporter gracefully retired.—S. F. Tribune.

Senator Trumbull Sketched by Don Piatt

On last Tuesday, I believe it was, Senator Trumbull introduced a bill that could have emanated from no other source. This gentleman has less of the politician in his independence and more of the statesman in the way of intellect and acquirement, than any one of the body, on which he reflects credit. He has committed errors, of course. His vote in the impeachment trial was a grave error, and the more so for that it lost him much of the confidence of the people. No man believes for a moment that he was influenced in this by a corrupt motive, nor is the other belief generally entertained, correct, that it came of a personal dislike for Senator Wade. Senator Trumbull has views that amount to conviction, and one might as well attempt to move a mountain by persuasion as to change Senator Trumbull when he has once formed an opinion.

Tall, erect, slender, and dignified, he is cold to austerity, as if the cultivation of his brain had exhausted his feelings. This is his weakness. He lacks the sympathy necessary to a popular leader. With his gold rimmed spectacles and abstracted air he resembles a professor more than the politician, and one wonders how he comes to be a leading member of the Senate. No other party than the Republican could throw such a man to the surface; and as we are right in judging of an organization by its representative men, these students Trumbull, Sumner and the late Pitt Fessenden reflect credit on our party.

And when I speak of Senator Trumbull's convictions, and his obstinacy in maintaining them, I must not be understood as confounding him with the obstinate ignorant. He is a hard student, and up to the moment of action works through a world of philosophical doubt and misgiving. I have seen him time and again, listening with patient attention to duller men, and receiving and discussing their propositions like a just judge with a legal difficulty to solve. But when the hour of action comes he appears the advocate, and brings to bear all the powers of his subtle, clear intellect to sustain his positions. In its popular sense he possesses no eloquence. He can convince without persuading, and being himself without feeling, makes no appeal to the feelings of his audience. Nor has he wit or sarcasm other than what comes of a clear, forcible cutting statement of his case, and an exposure of the fallacies and weakness of his opponent.—Washington Cor. [illegible] Commer[illegible]

THE BOY THAT STAYED.—A few years ago a large drug firm in this city advertised for a boy. Next day the store was thronged with applicants, among them a queer looking little fellow accompanied by a woman who proved to be his aunt, in lieu of faithless parents, by whom he had been abandoned. Looking at this little waif, the merchant in the store promptly said: "Can't take him; places all full; besides he is too small." "I know he is small," said the woman, "but he is willing and faithful." There was a twinkle in the boy's eyes that made the merchant think again. A partner in the firm volunteered the remark that he "didn't see what they wanted of such a boy; he wasn't bigger than a pint of cider." But after consultation the boy was set to work. A few days later a call was made on the boys in the store for some one to [illegible] night. The prompt response of the little fellow [illegible] with the re[illegible] of others. [illegible] the middle of the night the merchant looked in to see if all was right in the store, and presently discovered his youthful protege busy scissoring labels. "What are you doing?" said he. "I did not tell you to work nights." "I know you did not tell me so, but I thought I might as well be doing something." In the morning the cashier got orders to "double that boy's wages, for he is willing." Only a few weeks elapsed before a show of wild beasts passed through the streets, and very naturally all hands in the store rushed to witness the spectacle. A thief saw his opportunity and entered at the rear door to seize something, but in a twinkling found himself firmly clutched by the diminutive clerk aforesaid, and after a struggle was captured. Not only was a robbery prevented, but valuable articles taken from other stores were recovered. When asked by the merchant why he stayed behind to watch when others quit their work, the reply was: "You told me never to leave the store when others were absent, and I thought I'd stay." Orders were immediately given once more: "Double that boy's wages; he is willing and faithful." To-day that boy is getting a salary of $2,500, and next January will become a member of the firm. Young man, imitate his example.—Hall Journal of Health.

The correspondent of the New York [illegible] in Egypt writes that M. de Lesseps, of Suez Canal fame, was married on the afternoon of Nov. 25, at Ismailia, by Monseigneur Bauer. Almost the only spectator outside the family connections was Captain Ries, of the Norwegian frigate [illegible]. The Empress' gift was magnificent: miniature gondola of gold and silver; and the Emperor of Austria's a splendid decoration of the Grand Cross of Maria Theresa.

A woman has just died in a Scotch colliery village who for fifty years has passed for a man. She had two wives, with one of whom she lived for twenty-three years.

PORTLAND, Jan. 5, 1870.

Latest New York gold quotations 119¾.

Legal Tender rates in San Francisco 83c@83½c.

Portland Legal Tender rates 82½ buying, 83½ selling.

Receipts of produce are quite large to-day. The Willamette river steamers brought down 6,744 qr sacks of flour for the mills along the river.

No sales or receipts of wheat are noticed. Oats in considerable quantities came in, and those not received on orders were ready sale at 40@42c for choice.

Produce dealers are handling a great deal of wheat, flour, bacon and pork at this time, and these articles may be quoted as active. The parties named shipped as follows for San Francisco by the brig North Star, which sailed yesterday: Williams & Myers, 1,120 qr sks flour; McCraken, Merrill & Co., 2,900 qr sks, 900 hlf sks flour, 4,288 staves; Salem Mills, 872 qr sks, 150 hlf sks best family flour, do 450 hlf sks, 64 qr sks XXX; Baker's flour; Savier & Co., 2,800 qr sks flour, 226 sks middlings; Albany Steam Mills, 1,800 qr sks flour; Rye, ding & Beebe, 10 hlf bbls butter, 6 kegs butter; A. P. Ankeny, 30 cases hams and shoulders; Everding & Beebe, 7 sks oats, 2,601 do wheat, 335 do middlings, 413½ do flour, 230½ do do.

The retail trade is better, though some complaint of dull times is yet heard.

Grocers are well supplied and prices are firm.

Fresh meats may be noticed as rather more in demand, with no signs of of decline in rates.

HIRAM SMITH'S

Ophthalmic Panacea!

IS WITHOUT DOUBT THE MOST WONDERFUL EYE HEALER that has yet been discovered.

It CURES the worst and most hopeless cases of CHRONIC INFLAMMATIONS, GRANULATED LIDS, FILMS, &c., as has been sufficiently demonstrated during the few months in which it has been brought into public notice. The proprietor is fully convinced of its INFALLIBILITY that he WARRANTS A CURE OR REFUNDS THE MONEY. It can do the eyes no harm, and a trial of it is therefore without injury or expense to the patient if a cure is not effected.

It has cured cases of FIVE, SIX, NINE, FIFTEEN and even EIGHTEEN YEARS standing in Harrisburg, Linn county, Oregon, among which the following persons will bear witness:

E. B. MOORE	NATHANIEL BELL,
A. L. WALLACE	G. R. WARD,
Mrs. MONTGOMERY	JOHN M. HOLLOWAY
W. D. PORTER,	ROB'T RAMSEY

And others in that vicinity.

Persons afflicted with the distressing scourge of diseased eyes are advised to give this remedy a fair trial on the NO CURE, NO PAY and NO INJURY plan.

Prepared by SMITH & ROACH, Harrisburg, Oregon.

THE

Weekly Oregonian

FOR THE

CAMPAIGN OF 1870.

FIVE MONTHS

FOR

ONE DOLLAR!

Desiring to do all in our power to carry the State for the Republican Ticket next June, we have decided to offer the WEEKLY OREGONIAN as a campaign paper at the low rate of ONE DOLLAR for five months, commencing with the issue of Jan. 8th and ending June 1st.

We ask the aid of all friends of the cause to assist in placing the paper in the hands of the people. It is desirable that they should send in their lists by the 3d of January.

County Committees or Republican clubs will be furnished any number for distribution at the rate of $5 00 per hundred copies for any issue or number of issues during the campaign.

Orders should be sent in by Tuesday of each week to insure receiving the paper of the following Saturday.
